PETITIONERS' SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF

Pursuant to Rule 22.6 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States, Petitioners respectfully submit this Supplemental Brief in order to advise the Court of intervening matters occurring subsequent to Petitioners' last filing which may affect the Court's consideration of the above-captioned case.

On June 28, 1981, Local Union No. 80 of the Food and Allied Service Workers, chartered by the United Food and Commercial Workers, AFL-CIO (hereinafter referred to as the "Union"), presented the Petitioners, Haddon House Food Products, Inc. and Flavor Delight, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer"), with a formal demand for recognition as the employees' exclusive collective bargaining representative. This demand for recognition was based upon the Union's allegation that it had obtained the signatures of a majority of employees on cards authorizing the Union to act as their exclusive bargaining representative.

On July 8, 1981, the Union's claimed majority was certified by the American Arbitration Association following an examination of the authorization cards collected by the Union. Pursuant to Section 9(a) of the National Labor Relations Act, and in accord with the certification by the American Arbitration Association, the Employer recognized the Union as the employees' exclusive collective bargaining representative (Appendix "A").

On July 24, 1981, the parties consummated a collective bargaining agreement extending over a three-year term.

Respectfully submitted,

-and-
Haddon House Foods and Flavor Delight,
Incorporated
Election No. 14 50 0020 81 M/C

CERTIFICATION OF RESULTS

The American Arbitration Association, having been authorized by the above-named parties, conducted a card check on July 8, 1981 for the purpose of representation for collective bargaining.

The Union submitted forty (40) signed authorization cards. Haddon House Foods and Flavor Delight, Inc. supplied an excelsior list of the seventy-three (73) employees at its Medford, N.J. location.

It was found that of the forty (40) signed authorization cards presented, thirty-nine (39) were found to be among the seventy-three (73) employees on the list supplied both companies.

Therefore, it is hereby certified that excluding the office employees, salespersons, guards, and supervisors defined in the Act, a majority of warehouse employees of Haddon House Foods and Flavor Delight, Inc., in Medford, N.J. wish to be represented by Local P80 Food & Allied Service Workers, 116-120 N. 2nd Street, Camden, N.J. for the purpose of collective bargaining.
